Report of Operative G T Purdy

Sept. 20th, 1926

Hall-Mills

He was B

As per instructions of Mr. Pfeiffer, Operative proceeded to Police Headquarters in Bayonne, N.J. and there interviewed John J. Rigney, Superintendent of the Criminal Identification Bureau, and requested him to furnish me with the Rogues Gallery photograph of Andrew Eisleitner. He refused and explained that if he gave it to me and the Prosecution for the State found it out they would think that he is helping the defense. He then said he would go down and see the Chief about it. When he returned he stated that the Chief was not in and said he would take it up with him and if the Chief gives permission he will turn the picture over to me. He requested me to call him on the telephone in a couple of days when he would let me know.

Operative believes that when Mr. Rigney went down to see the Chief he (the Chief) told him not to give the picture out, and then Rigney informed me that the Chief was out. The number of the picture is 831.

Operative then returned to New Brunswick and waited in Mr. Watson's office until Mr. Thompson came in. We then discussed the case and made plans for the following day.

In the evening Operative went to #13 Delfield St. to the home of Daniel Maloney. We have information that this man was well known around Gillins Road House. Mr. Maloney was not at home when I called, but his daughter told me to call again at 11:30 A.M. to-morrow when her father would be at home and will see me.

Respectfully submitted:
